GRAND DUKE MICHAEL.

Brother of the Emperor is on His Way Back to Russia.

Stockholm, Aug. 19, via London, Aug. 20.—The Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the emperor of Russia, with his suite of seventeen persons, arrived at Christiania, from Newcastle, Eng., on his way to Russia.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN EUROPE.

Again details concerning the warfare in Europe were lacking, owing to the continued strict censorship. An official communication, issued in Brussels, however, acknowledged that fighting was proceeding between the allied armies and the Germans on the entire battle front, from the Swiss border north to Diest, Belgium, a distance of approximately 250 miles.

An official French communication said the French had penetrated to Morhange, in Alsace-Lorraine, a short distance southeast of Metz.

Large German forces were said by the communication to be crossing the Meuse river, between Liege and Namur.

A Reuter dispatch from Brussels reported German troops a short distance east and northeast of Antwerp.

A Russian force was reported to have been defeated recently near Stallupönen, in Prussia, by the Germans.

An engagement was said to have been proceeding in Northern Luxembourg and an important Franco-German battle was expected to ensue.

The death of Pope Pius X. is attributed partly to the war.

NEWSPAPER REPORT OF GERMAN LOSSES

Fifteen Hundred Dead and Seven Thousand Wounded.

There is little change in the situation in Upper Alsace. The French continue to advance in the Vosges. The Germans have retaken the village of Ville, where the French had an outpost. French troops, debouching on the Seltz, have occupied Chateau Salins and Dieuze, but face well fortified and strongly held positions.

A Brussels dispatch to the Havas agency says that, according to the People, the Germans again attacked Diest on Wednesday afternoon. They appeared to have come back in force and bombarded the town, whose inhabitants fled in terror. The German artillery also is reported to have bombarded Tirlemont.

Another Havas dispatch from Brussels, sent in very vague form, leads to the belief that the Germans made a surprise advance close to the Belgian positions defending Brussels.

They encamped for the night, but a Belgian aviator discovered their position and revealed it to headquarters in time. Cavalry was hurried forward and after some marching and counter-marching the Germans retired.

SAYS ATTACK IS IMMINENT

German Governor of Kiaochow Issues Proclamation.

Peking, China, Aug. 20.—The governor of Kiaochow, the German colony in China, issued a proclamation saying that an attack is imminent.

The majority of the noncombatants already have left and the American legation is advising the state department to withdraw Willys R. Peck, the American consul, his presence being unnecessary because American interests temporarily are terminated. Mr. Peck, however, desires to remain.

Although the garrison at Kiaochow is less than 5,000 the fortifications are believed to be formidable. Since the war began the harbor has been mined and the land defenses stretched with wire entanglement, earthworks and mined zones.

Special to Dispatch:

London, Aug. 20, 3 P. M.—With the retirement of the Belgian army towards Antwerp, north of Brussels, and the large German force continuing to cross the River Meuse between Liege and Namur, indications point to the early occupation of Brussels by the Germans.

Paris, Aug. 20, 1:30 P. M.—That the Germans are making a determined resistance to the French operations in Alsace-Lorraine is indicated by the war office announcement that the Germans have retaken Ville.

London, Aug. 20, 1:30 P. M.—The Brussels correspondent of the Chronicle, reports that Louvain is occupied by the Germans and the Belgians are now faced.

GERMAN ARMY IS ADVANCING

Special to Dispatch:

London, Aug. 20, 11:40 A. M.—The combined German armies of the Meuse and the First Army of the Moselle are today attacking the allied armies near Brussels. They were forced to advance against strongly entrenched positions, heavily supported by thousands of pieces of French artillery. The German advance lasted two days and was very slow but steady.

GERMANS ATTACK ALLIES AT BRUSSELS

Special to Dispatch:

Paris, Aug. 20, 10:45 A. M.—A portion of the Belgian army has begun to retire in the direction of Antwerp, according to official announcement concerning the situation in Belgium. East of Namur the Germans have attained a line between Dinant and Neufchateau. Large German forces continue to cross the River Meuse between Liege and Namur. German outposts have occupied Dyle.

FRENCH CHARY WITH THEIR NEWS

Special to The Dispatch:

Paris, Aug. 20, 11:40 A. M.—A communication given out by the French war department this morning is one of the briefest for some days. It announced only a few bare facts. Important developments are now in progress in Belgium and to this was added that there was nothing new along the front in Alsace-Lorraine.

FRENCH CLAIM MUELHAUSEN

Special to The Dispatch:

London, Aug. 20, 3 P. M.—French official advices announce the rapid progress of the French invading Lorraine in the direction of Metz. The occupation of Muelhausen, Alsace, was announced in Paris.

TEN TONS OF STEEL FALLS

Two Workmen Killed in Accident at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Aug. 20.—Two workmen were killed when their horses when ten tons of structural steel fell from the eighteenth story of the First National bank-Soo Line building.

The dead men are Gilbert Mahawold, forty-five years old, and George Kanoris, thirty-five years old.

Mahawold was mangled almost beyond identification. Kanoris, who tried to run from under the descending steel, was caught and died a few minutes later in the City hospital from his injuries.

The bodies of the horses were ground to bits.

Thousands of people heard the deafening crash and morbid sightseers had to be forcibly kept away from the scene.

LEAVES MATTER TO PEOPLE

William E. Lee States Position on Liquor Question.

Minneapolis, Aug. 20.—The issues on which William E. Lee will seek the governorship were outlined by Mr. Lee and Republican party leaders at the first meeting of the state central committee at the Dyckman hotel. Business administration of state affairs, civil service for appointive officers, the right of the people to manage, control or suppress the liquor traffic and the tariff were proclaimed as the principal planks in the Republican platform.

Two hundred attended the meeting. They came from every section of the state. There were nineteen speakers introduced by Chairman Gunnar B. Bjornson. All promised to support the entire ticket and predicted the usual glorious victory in November.

The failure of Mr. Lee to come out squarely for county option caused a surprise. His platform, however, in this respect was taken to be a broad one by his friends. Mr. Lee said on this subject:

"This is a government of the people. They have the right in my opinion to say in what manner the liquor business shall be conducted, whether it shall be conducted, whether it shall be repressed or restricted. The liquor problem is for the state government to solve."

"The people should have the right to vote their wishes, whether they desire it eliminated from cities, districts or counties, in fact the people should determine the unit."

SAYS DELAY IS BENEFIT TO ALLIES

Brussels Telegram Admits Fighting.

WHOLE FRONT IN ACTION

Position of Opposing Armies Is Not Made Public.

London, Aug. 20.—A Havas dispatch from Brussels gives an official communication concerning the present state of the field operations in Belgium.

"After having lost much time and a great number of men and, besides, important war material," the communication says, "the Prussian right wing has succeeded in gaining on both banks of the Meuse, to bring them in contact with the allies' armies."

"The German troops on the north bank of the Meuse comprise sections of different army corps whose efforts have been directed toward the capture of Liege and who are disengaged. There also are bodies of cavalry, thanks to which the Germans have been able to make considerable disturbances and extend themselves north and south."

"On the south the allied Belgian and French armies have been able to repulse them, but on the north, on the contrary, they have had a free field and could penetrate in small bodies far into the country."

"In a word, the Germans have taken a number of our positions, but have wasted fifteen days in arriving at this result, which is greatly to the honor of our army. It is not a question of single battle evolutions or captures of certain parts of country or of towns."

"These matters are secondary in regard to the object assigned our troops in the general dispositions. This aim cannot be revealed and the most penetrating minds will be unable to discover it, owing to the necessarily vague particulars furnished concerning the operations."

"Fighting is proceeding on the whole front extending from Basel, Switzerland, to Diest, Belgium, and in these numerous contacts the more opposing armies approach each other and the nearer come the deciding battles, the more one must expect to hear of an advantage on this side and of yielding on that."

"The engagements of the last few days have had the result of rendering our adversaries more circumspect. The delay of the enemy's advance had the greatest advantage for our general plan of operation."

"There is need for us to play into the hands of the Germans." That is the motive of the movement now being carried out. Far from being beaten we are making arrangements for beating the enemy under the best possible conditions."

WASHINGTON HAS NO NEWS

European War Censorship Is Evidently Effective.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Officials of the United States government are as ignorant of what is happening on the battlefields of Europe as the general public. Not a single message—and American diplomats are in hourly communication from all European capitals—has come in the last five days giving the slightest hint of the development of military operations.

In only one dispatch was there any reference to pending hostilities. Minister Whitlock at Belgium reported that although the seat of government had been moved to Antwerp he saw no need of leaving Brussels for the present. From this it was inferred that the German forces were not yet close to the Belgian capital.

FEW TO OPPOSE M'REYNOLDS

Confirmation of Nomination for Supreme Court Is Predicted.

Washington, Aug. 20.—No Democratic opposition to the nomination of Attorney General McReynolds for the supreme court is looked for in the senate, administration leaders confidently predicting early confirmation. The judiciary committee, to which the nomination was referred, will meet Monday.

Thomas W. Gregory's appointment as attorney general also will be passed on by the judiciary committee. Opposition to Mr. McReynolds is expected from the Progressive Republicans.

POPE PIUS X.

Grief Over War Said to Have Caused His Death.

GERMANY WILL NOT YIELD

Indications Are She Will Reject Japan's Demands.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Germany's reply to Japan's ultimatum is being awaited with anxiety in diplomatic quarters as likely to open hostilities in the Far East. It is possible the reply may pass through American channels of communication, as that was one of the means of forwarding Japan's note owing to the difficulties of cable communication.

The suggestion is made in diplomatic circles that if Germany withdrew from Kiaochow, abandoning it for the time being, while her energies were centered in Europe, it would present a new and interesting situation. With Germany withdrawing, Kiaochow would naturally revert to China.

However, no information of Germany's purpose has yet come through, although such intimation as officials receive indicate that Germany will reject the demand and resist a siege to the utmost.

AMERICANS' ENERGY IMPRESSES LONDON

Relief Committee Ends Its Labors and Dissolves.

London, Aug. 20.—The American citizens' relief committee, organized during the financial and shipping panic the first few days of the war, ended its existence after accomplishing its purpose, which greatly impressed English observers.

Owing to the departure of Theodore Hettler, Frederick I. Kent, William C. Breed and others of the leaders for New York, the executive committee empowered Herbert C. Hoover, W. N. Duane and Joseph H. Day to prepare to turn over the work of the citizens' committee to the American residents' committee, which will continue relief measures.

Mr. Day reported that 20,000 Americans would sail this week for home, as against 35,000 last week. On the vessels sailing this week are accommodations for 250 first class passengers which have not been sold. A majority of the inquiries for these reservations are coming from persons who had booked passage in the steerage when the rush began to get away from Europe.

APPROVES ENGLAND'S ACTION

Canadian Parliament Unanimous in Supporting War.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 20.—England's participation in the European conflict was endorsed by the Canadian parliament. In the house of commons and senate the government and opposition leaders and their followers were in accord and in the chambers the addresses endorsing the speech from the throne was adopted in record time.

Sir Wilfred Laurier, opposition leader in the lower house, arose after formalities had been completed.

"So long as there is danger at the front," he said, "it is our duty to let Great Britain know, to let the friends and foes of Great Britain know, that there is in Canada but one mind and one heart."

Canada was warned in January last that Germany probably would precipitate war, was the announcement with which the premier, Sir Robert Borden, opened his speech. As a result of this warning Canada prepared a defense plan.

Seattle, Aug. 20.—The Strath line, with headquarters in Glasgow, has notified its agents in America that the British admiralty considers it safe for the steamers Strathbeg, Strathballyn and Strathesk to sail from Puget sound, the Strathfenderick to leave Columbia river and for the Strathleven to depart from San Francisco for Australia.

POPE PIUS SUCCUMBS

War Hastens End of Aged Pontiff.

ILL FOR SEVERAL DAYS

His Administration Has Handled Many Large Problems.

Rome, Aug. 20.—Pope Pius X. died at 1:20 a. m. He had been ill for several days, but alarming symptoms did not develop until Wednesday morning. Throughout the day Doctors Marchisava and Amici devoted their utmost energies to stimulating their patient and keeping him alive.

The cardinals were notified of the pope's grave condition and some of those who entered the sick chamber described the impressive and heart-rending scenes as pitiful, when the pontiff, raising himself from time to time, spoke. Once he said:

"In ancient times the pope by a word might have stayed the slaughter, but now he is impotent."

Prayers were said by thousands and the bells of the churches sounded when the sacrament was exposed upon all the altars.

When the court learned of the pope's condition there was the deepest concern. King Victor Emmanuel personally informed Queen Helena and the news was communicated to the queen mother.

Extreme unction was administered by Mgr. Zampini, sacristan to his holiness, amid a most touching scene. The sisters of the pope and his niece were overcome with grief. Cardinal Merry del Val knelt by the side of his bed, where other cardinals joined him, the members of the household intoning prayers.

The dying pope, in a moment of lucidity, said:

"Now I begin to think, as the end is approaching, that the Almighty, in His inexhaustible goodness, wishes to spare me the horrors Europe is undergoing."

Giuseppe Melchiorre Sarto, known to the world as Pope Pius X., was elected to the Pontificate on Aug. 4, 1903, since which time his administration that of exalted office has been confronted with some of the most momentous problems, religious and governmental, with which the Holy See has had to deal in recent years.

Pope Pius was born on June 2, 1835, at Riese, in the Venetian provinces.

ALARM IS PASSING AWAY

Money Again Flowing Into New York City Banks.

New York, Aug. 20.—An interesting development in the financial situation was the evidence that a considerable portion of the money taken from local banks during the early alarm engendered by the foreign crisis in flowing back into normal channels.

Much of this money was withdrawn by merchants and manufacturers who feared a possible scarcity of cash to meet pressing obligations, mainly pay rolls.

This return flow is largely offset, however, by the increasing demands of interior banks. The West is calling on this center for money to meet its crop moving requirements and the South shows increasing insistence in its demands for cash to harvest cotton.

Great Britain Lifts Ban on American Autos.

London, Aug. 20.—Robert P. Skinner, the American consul general at London, received a communication from Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, saying that the British government would permit the exportation of American owned motor cars on proper representations being made to the customs authorities.

The government also is willing, the foreign secretary said, to permit the return to the United States of American bred horses and polo ponies, which are not needed by the military, though the question of the military fitness of the animals must first be decided.

TERRIFIC STRUGGLE HAS BEGUN

Great Conflict Raging in Belgium.

CENSOR AT BRUSSELS APPLIES NEWS LID

Armies of France, Belgium and Germany Are Locked in Death Grapple.

London, Aug. 20.—The advance of German troops around and above Brussels, and even into what are practically the suburbs of Antwerp, is indicated in Reuter dispatches from Antwerp, which report that German cavalry have been encountered near Herenthals, fifteen miles east of Antwerp, and also near Turnhout, which is twenty-five miles northeast of Antwerp and close to the Dutch frontier.

London, Aug. 20.—A great battle is in progress in Belgium between the allies and the Germans within an area stretching from Diest and Tirlemont as far as Givet.

This is the conclusion drawn from messages received here from many points in Belgium where the armies of France, Belgium and Germany are in contact.

It is becoming practically impossible to get news from Brussels, as the censor forbids any information concerning the movements of the troops being published.

The general impression here is that no effort will be made to concentrate for the defense of Brussels. Dispatches announce that the British, French and Russian ministers, with their staffs have left for Antwerp.

All England is waiting for news from the North sea, where the British fleet is reported to have met the German fleet. The official information bureau has given out no statement.

Paris advices are to the effect that the French army has reached Morhange (Morchingen), in Alsace-Lorraine, nineteen miles southeast of Metz. The advance, it is said, was very rapid beyond the river Seltz, especially the central part of the French line. Delme on one side and Morhange on the other were reached.

Little Change in Alsace.

There is little change in the situation in Upper Alsace. The French continue to advance in the Vosges. The Germans have retaken the village of Ville, where the French had an outpost. French troops, debouching on the Seltz, have occupied Chateau Salins and Dieuze, but face well fortified and strongly held positions.

NEWSPAPER REPORT OF GERMAN LOSSES

Fifteen Hundred Dead and Seven Thousand Wounded.

Rotterdam, Aug. 20.—The casualty of the German army published in the Cologne Gazette gives in detail the losses of the Germans up to Aug. 18. They total about 1,500 dead and 7,000 wounded. The list as printed gives the name of each individual killed or injured.

According to another German newspaper the German fleet not blockading Russian ports is at Kiel and at Helgoland. About 2,000,000 Germans are now in the field, but the mobilization continues. The railroads in the west are carrying nothing except soldiers and supplies. Many Austrian troops are on their way to France, according to this newspaper.

GERMAN BARK AT NEW YORK

Richly Laden Steamer Eludes Warships on the Atlantic.

New York, Aug. 20.—The German bark Matador on the seas since July 29, a war prize worth nearly $400,000 eluded all warships and tied up in dock here. For a week or more after the declaration of war her officers knew nothing of it and steered their craft for Bremen unconscious of their risk of capture.

The Matador sailed from New Orleans July 29 for Bremen with a cargo of tobacco and staves worth $247,000. Two weeks thereafter on Aug. 12 her captain spoke the Mallory liner Alamo and, learning for the first time of the European war, made for this port. Captain Remos of the Matador took precaution to dodge any hostile warships that might appear, setting double watches and keeping a man aloft all the time.

During the week's sailing, however, not a warship was seen.

His Administration Has Handled Many Large Problems.

Rome, Aug. 20.—Pope Pius X. died at 1:20 a. m. He had been ill for several days, but alarming symptoms did not develop until Wednesday morning. Throughout the day Doctors Marchisava and Amici devoted their utmost energies to stimulating their patient and keeping him alive.

The cardinals were notified of the pope's grave condition and some of those who entered the sick chamber described the impressive and heart-rending scenes as pitiful, when the pontiff, raising himself from time to time, spoke. Once he said:

"In ancient times the pope by a word might have stayed the slaughter, but now he is impotent."

Prayers were said by thousands and the bells of the churches sounded when the sacrament was exposed upon all the altars.

When the court learned of the pope's condition there was the deepest concern. King Victor Emmanuel personally informed Queen Helena and the news was communicated to the queen mother.

Extreme unction was administered by Mgr. Zampini, sacristan to his holiness, amid a most touching scene. The sisters of the pope and his niece overcame with grief. Cardinal Merry del Val knelt by the side of his bed, where other cardinals joined him, the members of the household intoning prayers.

The dying pope, in a moment of lucidity, said:

"Now I begin to think, as the end is approaching, that the Almighty, in His inexhaustible goodness, wishes to spare me the horrors Europe is undergoing."

Giuseppe Melchiorre Sarto, known to the world as Pope Pius X., was elected to the Pontificate on Aug. 4, 1903, since which time his administration that of exalted office has been confronted with some of the most momentous problems, religious and governmental, with which the Holy See has had to deal in recent years.

Pope Pius was born on June 2, 1835, at Riese, in the Venetian provinces.

ALARM IS PASSING AWAY

Money Again Flowing Into New York City Banks.

New York, Aug. 20.—An interesting development in the financial situation was the evidence that a considerable portion of the money taken from local banks during the early alarm engendered by the foreign crisis in flowing back into normal channels.

Much of this money was withdrawn by merchants and manufacturers who feared a possible scarcity of cash to meet pressing obligations, mainly pay rolls.

This return flow is largely offset, however, by the increasing demands of interior banks. The West is calling on this center for money to meet its crop moving requirements and the South shows increasing insistence in its demands for cash to harvest cotton.

Great Britain Lifts Ban on American Autos.

London, Aug. 20.—Robert P. Skinner, the American consul general at London, received a communication from Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, saying that the British government would permit the exportation of American owned motor cars on proper representations being made to the customs authorities.

The government also is willing, the foreign secretary said, to permit the return to the United States of American bred horses and polo ponies, which are not needed by the military, though the question of the military fitness of the animals must first be decided.

WOMAN SPY SHOT BY THE BELGIANS.

Brussels, Aug. 20, via Paris. —Four German girls were arrested here on the charge of spying. Three spies, one a woman, apprehended at Louvain, have been shot. Three persons excited by the war + news have gone insane.

Stevenson's Whimsical Attire.
Here is a picturesque glimpse of Stevenson's whimsical attire as given in the "Collected Essays of Edmund Gosse."

"Stevenson was not without a good deal of innocent oddity in his dress. When I try to conjure up his figure I can only see a slight, lean lad in a suit of blue sea cloth, a black shirt and a wisp of yellow carpet that did duty for a necktie. This was long his attire, persevered in to the anguish of his more conventional acquaintances. I have a ludicrous memory of going in 1878 to buy him a new hat, in company with Mr. Lang, the thing then upon his head having lost the semblance of a human article of dress."

Liquid Measure.
Jim Snedecor had been elected justice of the peace, and he judged that his office required a silk hat. The only one in town was the parson's, and before he went up to the city Jim borrowed it one afternoon to get a notion of his size. It fitted him. In the city store he told the clerk that he aimed to get a silk hat.
"What size, sir?" asked the clerk.
"Well," said Jim, "you'd better gimme the three quart size, young man."—New York Post.

THE BELL BOY KNEW IT WAS 3 A.M.

JUST because you want tobacco satisfaction is no reason why you need to put a big wad in your cheek, and then have to grind on it.

A small chew of "Right-Cut" satisfies you. It's the Real Tobacco Chew. The glad news spreads from friend to friend.

Very likely you yourself have already started several of your friends on "Right-Cut."

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

If your dealer does not sell it, send us 10c. in stamps for a pouch of "Right-Cut" Chewing Tobacco.

Stevenson's Whimsical Attire.
Here is a picturesque glimpse of Stevenson's whimsical attire as given in the "Collected Essays of Edmund Gosse."

"Stevenson was not without a good deal of innocent oddity in his dress. When I try to conjure up his figure I can only see a slight, lean lad in a suit of blue sea cloth, a black shirt and a wisp of yellow carpet that did duty for a necktie. This was long his attire, persevered in to the anguish of his more conventional acquaintances. I have a ludicrous memory of going in 1878 to buy him a new hat, in company with Mr. Lang, the thing then upon his head having lost the semblance of a human article of dress."

Liquid Measure.
Jim Snedecor had been elected justice of the peace, and he judged that his office required a silk hat. The only one in town was the parson's, and before he went up to the city Jim borrowed it one afternoon to get a notion of his size. It fitted him. In the city store he told the clerk that he aimed to get a silk hat.
"What size, sir?" asked the clerk.
"Well," said Jim, "you'd better gimme the three quart size, young man."—New York Post.

THE BELL BOY KNEW IT WAS 3 A.M.

JUST because you want to-bacco satisfaction is no reason why you need to put a big wad in your cheek, and then have to grind on it.

A small chew of "Right-Cut" satisfies you. It's the Real Tobacco Chew. The glad news spreads from friend to friend.

Very likely you yourself have already started several of your friends on "Right-Cut."

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

If your dealer does not sell it, send us 10c. in stamps for a pouch of "Right-Cut" Chewing Tobacco.

MUCH WANTED MAN IN CUSTODY

John Bruce, Alias John Williamson,
Charged With Selling Mortgaged
Property Has Hearing

HE IS NOW UNDER $250 BONDS

Warrants for Him Also From Benton
County and From Grand Forks
North Dakota

John Bruce, alias John Williamson, a transient horse trader who did business in Brainerd and vicinity, appears to be a much wanted man. When the sheriff's office succeeded in tracing him up and running him down, he was brought to Brainerd charged with selling mortgaged property, a local bank making the charge.

Bruce's examination was held yesterday morning in the municipal court and he was bound over to the grand jury. Bonds were placed at $250 and these have not yet been furnished.

In the meantime warrants have come from Benton county and Grand Forks, N. D., for Bruce's arrest. The Benton county warrant charges the horse trader with issuing a fraudulent check and the North Dakota one charges him with selling chattels against which there was an existing lien.

Jack Maguire, also known as Jack Burns, charged with a statutory offense, has given a cash bail bond of $500. He was called to Ottawa, Canada, on account of the severe sickness of a brother. Burns, who is charged with bastardy, has his case set for hearing September 12 at 10 A. M.

Charles N. Cannon and Frank Cannon, arrested on complaints of Selma Bechner and Arthur Algrim respectively, of Woodrow, were charged with selling liquor without a license. Both waived examination and they were bound to the grand jury in $200 bonds each.

Fred Cannon was charged with simple assault on the complaint of Arthur Algrim. The defendant pleaded not guilty. His case was set for hearing on August 26 at 10 A. M.

In the case of Ben Nesheim, charged with securing goods under false pretenses, the case was dismissed by the court. Business in the county attorney's office is increasing daily and it keeps County Attorney G. S. Swanson busy at court hearings. Thursday he has been called to Crosby.

CHEERFUL ADVICE

When you call on the sick remember that the conversation should deal with cheerful topics and never with anything dull or gloomy. Many an invalid has been plunged into a state of nervous melancholy through the untimely remarks of some ignorant or thoughtless visitor. "Yes," sadly related a visitor, "Mrs. Jones died yesterday. She suffered from the same malady as you have, and she was sick for such a long time." After which she insisted that she must depart, urging the invalid to be of good cheer. Cheerful topics, and a little "Zumalweiss" beer, when convalescent, will hasten many a recovery. J. O. Nelson, Tel. 179-J.—Adv.

PINE RIVER HERE SUNDAY

Aspiring Team Puts up $100 Real
Money with A. T. Fisher at Mahlum Lumber Co.

PINE RIVER BEAT AKELEY

Played Sunday at Park Rapids, Score
Being 12 to 3 in Favor of Pine River

Brainerd has a game with Pine River scheduled for next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Koering grounds in this city.

Pine River claims to have a team which will give Brainerd a run for its money. Last Sunday they played Akeley at Park Rapids and beat those aspiring, perspiring self-styled champions 12 to 3.

Pine River has bet an even $100 on its team and the money, real money at that, is now on deposit and displayed with A. T. Fisher at the Mahlum Lumber Co.

Brainerd will use their old reliable battery, Victor and Gaven. The rest of the lineup will include the usual star cast. Cook will hold down first base and that is worth the price of a game to see him play that position as good as Comiskey.

Frazee is aching for a game with Brainerd and has offered to put up $500, both teams to use the same players and pitchers as in a former game played in Brainerd.

Greshback-Stet

Mr. Louis T. Greshback and Miss Louise Stet were married Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church in Little Falls, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Father Rekosiah in the presence of a large number of invited friends and relatives.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride looked lovely in a gown of white satin and she carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Victoria Egan, also dressed in white. The best man was Gust Kulasek.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The happy couple enjoyed a short wedding trip and are today at home in their cosy flat in the Imperial block.

Mr. Greshback is a valued employee of the Coates Liquor company. His bride has a large circle of friends. To the young people the Dispatch, in company with their many friends, extends its best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.

WOODROW VICTORIOUS

Defeats Fort Ripley in 6 to 2 Game.
Novotny Having Seventeen
Strikeouts to His Credit

Woodrow defeated Fort Ripley in a 6 to 2 game played at Fort Ripley. The batteries for Woodrow were Novotny and Cannon, for Fort Ripley LaForce and Tucker.

LaForce had nine strikeouts to his credit, and Novotny, of the Woodrow Giants, fanned 17. A return game is to be played Sunday, August 30.

Like a Lake of Flame.

One of the most remarkable of the hot springs in the Yellowstone National park is Firehole lake, in which flames seem to appear in the water. These flames are seen from only two points, and should the wind be causing a disturbance of the water the tourist may not see them at all. At the eastern end of this small lake is a circular opening of a deep seated spring not unlike other vents of thermal waters. Through this vent, which usually stands full of clear, transparent water, numerous bubbles of mingled air and superheated steam rise gradually. Before reaching the surface they unite to form one large mass that in its upward passage strikingly resembles a flame of fire. This continues until the bubble bursts, only to be followed by a repetition of the phenomenon. The explanation is that the slightly agitated water is reflected in the thin film of the ascending volume of gas. The phenomena are far better seen at Firehole lake than elsewhere, but under favorable conditions they may be seen at other localities, but in a far less striking manner.

"Why, certainly, my little girl. But what do you want me to say?"

ENTERTAIN THE LADIES GUILD

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber Visited by 60 Ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Guild

PAVILION BUILT AT LAKE SHORE

Tables Were Set in Pavilion and Entire Company Served With a
Bountiful Supper

On Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber entertained at their large country estate, "Twin Oaks," at Nokay lake, sixty ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church guild. Ten automobiles took out the party of ladies.

Mr. Barber has recently completed a magnificent pavilion overlooking the lake and it was first used when the ladies were seated there and the bountiful supper served. The large wooden platform extends from a point near the house to the lake shore. Above was a canopy of canvas awnings. An added entertainment was a corn roast, the bonfires dotting the lake shore.

After the supper hour Mrs. Annie Edgerton of Chicago, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber, gave several recitations. She recited with rare dramatic power and her selections given were received with appreciation and applause. Rev. Caleb Benham, rector of St. Paul's church, spoke in appreciation of the kindness and hospitality shown the church and the guild by Mr. and Mrs. Barber and their daughter.

The guild held its regular meeting there. All expressed themselves as greatly enjoying the courteous attentions shown them. Last week the guild met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Peacock at Bay Lake. The next meeting is scheduled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Parker at Parkerville.

At the Columbia

The Columbia again has "Little Mary" in the fourth of her famous series. The picture for this week is "The Threads of Destiny," and judging from the reception given at the Lyric in Minneapolis last week, the management feels safe in saying that this picture is one of the best in which Mary Pickford ever appeared. The two part feature will be very good for two reasons. First, its a Vitagraph comedy, and second, the star is Lillian Walber. The other drama is "Mother Love," one of Lubin's specials.

RELIC OF INDIAN MYTHOLOGY.

Railway Man Has Totem Pole Willed
to Him by an Alaskan Chief.

There has been installed in a conspicuous place beside the door of the Great Northern railway office, 1154 Broadway, New York, a totem pole, an heirloom of one of the oldest Alaskan families. It was willed to General Louisbourg by Chief Koyukuk of the Lacksheek clan of the Haida tribe.

There are, or were, four large and important tribes in Alaska, the names of which in the Tsimshian language are Kishpook-wadda, having for symbols the finback whale in the sea, the grizzly bear on land, the grouse in the air and sun and stars. The next clan, known as the Canada, have for symbols the frog, the raven, the starfish and the bullhead. The Lachebo have the heron and the grizzly bear for totems, and the Lacksheek, the eagle, beaver and the halibut.

The Indians point back to a remote age when their ancestors lived in a beautiful land where, in a mysterious manner, the mythical creatures whose symbols they retain revealed themselves to the heads of the families of that day. They relate the traditional story of an overwhelming flood which spread death and destruction. Those who escaped in canoes were scattered in every direction on the face of the waters, and where they found themselves after the flood had subsided they there staked out pre-emption claims and formed new tribal associations. Thus it was that persons related by blood were widely separated from each other. Nevertheless they clung to the symbols which had distinguished them.

REGRETS.

Try to so direct your thoughts, your words, your actions, your whole life, in short, that regrets can find no room for intrusion. Regrets never follow virtuous actions. No one is sorrowful because, in looking back on his past life, he sees that it has been self denying and full of labor for others. If he does grieve at the retrospect it is because his efforts have been so imperfect and because he has done far less than it was his duty to do.

No Chance of That.

The beggar accepted gratefully a nickel from the professional humorist. "Thank you, sir," he said, his voice vibrant with deep feeling. "Oh, thank you, sir, and may you live to be as old as your jokes."—Washington Post.

OIL IS SPRAYED, AND NOT POURED

Experience of City of Dubuque, Iowa, in Sprinkling Streets With Oil

FIRST USED OWN CONTRIVANCE

Oil is Now Generally Used on Residence Streets in the Iowa City

Dubuque, Iowa, in its experience with oil sprinkling of streets, has had much the same experience which Brainerd is undergoing. In the early history of its oil sprinkling, home contrivances were used to spread the oil.

The writer visited the Dubuque city hall while on a trip through Iowa and the city clerk related the experiences of Dubuque. Last year the city had equipped its street force with sprinkling cans and they poured the oil on the streets. A gang of men with wire brooms followed and endeavored to spread the oil more equally and to obliterate the puddles which sometimes formed. This year the city purchased a regulation oil sprinkler and followed shortly with another, both costing about $500 each and freight. Oil had been used in Dubuque the last five or six years.

With the new sprinklers compressed air forces the oil out in a literal spray and deposits it equally and with satisfaction to all concerned. On some residence streets a coating of oil lasts a month or more and the streets has the appearance of just having been wet down by a water sprinkler which left no puddles. The oil, when so laid, does not stick to shoes or automobile tires and causes no tracking over pavements or floors. A tenth of a gallon is used to a square yard. In all cases care is taken that the oil is not put on too heavy, it being advisable to sprinkle oftener than to load up the surface with more oil than it can conveniently absorb. In treating new streets first class results are attained at the end of six weeks.

Dubuque uses brick paving on its business streets and the streets leading to the hill districts. It gives general satisfaction. On Main street is brick paving which was laid 23 years ago and has held up well under the heavy traffic.

The city owns its own water works. Water rates are there regulated according to the number of taps in a house, generally speaking it is 50 cents a tap, 75 cents for two taps a month, or $9 a year for two taps. A big improvement to be added is a high pressure system.

A large storm sewer is being built to the Mississippi river leading along Eighth street to the Peru road. It is 14 feet wide at the start and gradually grows smaller. It will cost $150,000. The length is two and a half miles.

Dubuque contemplates the purchase of additional auto equipment in its fire service and a committee of aldermen visited Minneapolis recently and inspected that city's equipment.

Dubuque is known far and wide in the baseball world. It has a municipal ball park used by the Dubuque city team. Amateur teams use the grounds on many of the other open dates.

The Elks have commenced the erection of a $150,000 building near Washington park. It is said this is preparatory to getting the next national convention.

Active in getting new industries to locate in Dubuque is their industrial association which often assists to finance new enterprises by taking stock in the same. When a new company wishes to locate in the Iowa city, an expert goes over the plant and makes a physical valuation. All the advantages which Dubuque has to offer are set out in attractive figures. The corporation does things on a business basis. Where the new company needs help, it is given in stock subscriptions. One of the big concerns which put a plant in Dubuque is the Brunswick-Balke-Clender Co.

In the early days much galena was mined near Dubuque. Later the blackjack which had been discarded was found to be of value and old mines were worked over again and new riches coined.

Added to four trunk railways Dubuque has good service, passenger and freight, on the Mississippi river. The Greater Dubuque Traveling-men's association has erected an electric sign, such as Brainerd contemplates, in the south end of their business district near the C. B. & Q. depot.

At the other depots, for instance, the Chicago & Great Western depot, are painted signs giving statistics regarding Dubuque. One finds this boosting spirit prevalent everywhere. Saloons close promptly at 9 o'clock in the evening. Marshalltown, Iowa, has no saloons, but Dubuque ships a lot of case beer to that town. In contradistinction with Marshalltown, Dubuque is colloquially known in Marshalltown as being a seaport.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

Papal Names.
Every one knows that as soon as a cardinal becomes a pope he is no longer known by his own name, but takes a new one. This custom originated out of reverence for St. Peter.

This custom, now a law of the church, had its origin in 884, when Peter II Porca became pope of Rome. He held that it would be presumptuous to style himself Peter II, so he adopted the name of Sergius II. Before that time many popes had changed their names, but it was not obligatory for them to do so. Sergius II. not only established a precedent in this direction, but he set an example which all pontiffs have followed in that none of them has ever retained or assumed the name of Peter.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription—Try It if Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedy for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes, because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store, and oftentimes get glasses that they do not need, or which, after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use:

5 grains Optona (1 tablet),
2 ounces Water.

Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription and the simple Optona system keeps the eyes clean, sharpens the vision and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation; weak, watery, overworked, tired eyes and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and oftentimes cured by its use. Many reports show that wearers of glasses have discarded them after a few weeks' use. It is good for the eyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. Any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

MUCH WANTED MAN IN CUSTODY

John Bruce, Alias John Williamson, Charged With Selling Mortgaged Property Has Hearing

HE IS NOW UNDER $250 BONDS
Warrants for Him Also From Benton County and From Grand Forks North Dakota

John Bruce, alias John Williamson, a transient horse trader who did business in Brainerd and vicinity, appears to be a much wanted man. When the sheriff's office succeeded in tracing him up and running him down, he was brought to Brainerd charged with selling mortgaged property, a local bank making the charge.

Bruce's examination was held yesterday morning in the municipal court and he was bound over to the grand jury. Bonds were placed at $250 and these have not yet been furnished.

In the meantime warrants have come from Benton county and Grand Forks, N. D., for Bruce's arrest. The Benton county warrant charges the horse trader with issuing a fraudulent check and the North Dakota one charges him with selling chattels against which there was an existing lien.

Jack Maguire, also known as Jack Burns, charged with a statutory offense, has given a cash bail bond of $500. He was called to Ottawa, Canada, on account of the severe sickness of a brother. Burns, who is charged with bastardy, has his case set for hearing September 12 at 10 A. M.

Charles N. Cannon and Frank Cannon, arrested on complaints of Selma Bechner and Arthur Algrim respectively, of Woodrow, were charged with selling liquor without a license. Both waived examination and they were bound to the grand jury in $200 bonds each.

Fred Cannon was charged with simple assault on the complaint of Arthur Algrim. The defendant pleaded not guilty. His case was set for hearing on August 26 at 10 A. M.

In the case of Ben Nesheim, charged with securing goods under false pretenses, the case was dismissed by the court. Business in the county attorney's office is increasing daily and it keeps County Attorney G. S. Swanson busy at court hearings. Thursday he has been called to Crosby.

CHEERFUL ADVICE

When you call on the sick remember that the conversation should deal with cheerful topics and never with anything dull or gloomy. Many an invalid has been plunged into a state of nervous melancholy through the untimely remarks of some ignorant or thoughtless visitor. "Yes," sadly related a visitor, "Mrs. Jones died yesterday. She suffered from the same malady as you have, and she was sick for such a long time." After which she insisted that she must depart, urging the invalid to be of good cheer. Cheerful topics, and a little "Zumalweiss" beer, when convalescent, will hasten many a recovery. J. O. Nelson, Tel. 179-J.—Adv.

PINE RIVER HERE SUNDAY

Aspiring Team Puts up $100 Real Money with A. T. Fisher at Mahlum Lumber Co.

PINE RIVER BEAT AKELEY
Played Sunday at Park Rapids. Score Being 12 to 3 in Favor of Pine River

Brainerd has a game with Pine River scheduled for next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Koering grounds in this city.

Pine River claims to have a team which will give Brainerd a run for its money. Last Sunday they played Akeley at Park Rapids and beat those aspiring, perspiring self-styled champions 12 to 3.

Pine River has bet an even $100 on its team and the money, real money at that, is now on deposit and displayed with A. T. Fisher at the Mahlum Lumber Co.

Brainerd will use their old reliable battery, Victor and Gaven. The rest of the lineup will include the usual star cast. Cook will hold down first base and that is worth the price of a game to see him play that position as good as Comiskey.

Frazer is aching for a game with Brainerd and has offered to put up $500, both teams to use the same players and pitchers as in a former game played in Brainerd.

Greshback-Stet

Mr. Louis T. Greshback and Miss Louise Stet were married Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church in Little Falls. The ceremony being performed by Rev. Father Rekoslab in the presence of a large number of invited friends and relatives.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride looked lovely in a gown of white satin and she carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Victoria Egan, also dressed in white. The best man was Gust Kulasek.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The happy couple enjoyed a short wedding trip and are today at home in their cosy flat in the Imperial block.

Mr. Greshback is a valued employee of the Coates Liquor company. His bride has a large circle of friends. To the young people the Dispatch, in company with their many friends, extends its best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.

WOODROW VICTORIOUS

Defeats Fort Ripley in 6 to 2 Game, Novotny Having Seventeen Strikeouts to His Credit

Woodrow defeated Fort Ripley in a 6 to 2 game played at Fort Ripley. The batteries for Woodrow were Novotny and Cannon, for Fort Ripley LaForce and Tucker.

LaForce had nine strikeouts to his credit, and Novotny, of the Woodrow Giants, fanned 17. A return game is to be played Sunday, August 30.

Like a Lake of Flame.

One of the most remarkable of the hot springs in the Yellowstone National park is Firehole lake, in which flames seem to appear in the water. These flames are seen from only two points, and should the wind be causing a disturbance of the water the tourist may not see them at all. At the eastern end of this small lake is a circular opening of a deep seated spring not unlike other vents of thermal waters. Through this vent, which usually stands full of clear, transparent water, numerous bubbles of mingled air and superheated steam rise gradually. Before reaching the surface they unite to form one large mass that in its upward passage strikingly resembles a flame of fire. This continues until the bubble bursts, only to be followed by a repetition of the phenomenon. The explanation is that the slightly agitated water is reflected in the thin film of the ascending volume of gas. The phenomena are far better seen at Firehole lake than elsewhere, but under favorable conditions they may be seen at other locations, but in a far less striking manner.

ENTERTAIN THE LADIES GUILD

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber Visited by 60 Ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Guild

PAVILION BUILT AT LAKE SHORE
Tables Were Set in Pavilion and Entertainers Served With a Bountiful Supper

On Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber entertained at their large country estate, "Twin Oaks," at Nokay lake, sixty ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church guild. Ten automobiles took out the party of ladies.

Mr. Barber has recently completed a magnificent pavilion overlooking the lake and it was first used when the ladies were seated there and the bountiful supper served. The large wooden platform extends from a point near the house to the lake shore. Above was a canopy of canvas awnings. An added entertainment was a corn roast, the bonfires dotting the lake shore.

After the supper hour Mrs. Annie Edgerton of Chicago, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber, gave several recitations. She recited with rare dramatic power and her selections given were received with appreciation and applause. Rev. Caleb Benham, rector of St. Paul's church, spoke in appreciation of the kindness and hospitality shown the church and the guild by Mr. and Mrs. Barber and their daughter.

The guild held its regular meeting there. All expressed themselves as greatly enjoying the courteous attentions shown them. Last week the guild met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Peacock at Bay Lake. The next meeting is scheduled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Parker at Parkerville.

At the Columbia

The Columbia again has "Little Mary" in the fourth of her famous series. The picture for this week is "The Threads of Destiny," and judging from the reception given at the Lyric in Minneapolis last week, the management feels safe in saying that this picture is one of the best in which Mary Pickford ever appeared. The two part feature will be very good for two reasons. First, its a Vitagraph comedy, and second, the star is Lillian Walker. The other drama is "Mother Love," one of Lubin's specials.

RELIC OF INDIAN MYTHOLOGY.

Railway Man Has Totem Pole Willed to Him by an Alaskan Chief.

There has been installed in a conspicuous place beside the door of the Great Northern railway office, 1184 Broadway, New York, a totem pole, an heirloom of one of the oldest Alaskan families. It was willed to General Agent Lounsbury by Chief Koyukuk of the Lacksheek clan of the Haida tribe.

There are, or were, four large and important tribes in Alaska, the names of which in the Tsimshian language are Kishpoot-wadda, having for symbols the finback whale in the sea, the grizzly bear on land, the grouse in the air and sun and stars. The next clan, known as the Canada, have for symbols the frog, the raven, the starfish and the bullhead. The Lachebo have the heron and the grizzly bear for totems, and the Lacksheek, the eagle, beaver and the halibut.

The Indians point back to a remote age when their ancestors lived in a beautiful land where, in a mysterious manner, the mythical creatures whose symbols they retain revealed themselves to the heads of the families of that day. They relate the traditional story of an overwhelming flood which spread death and destruction. Those who escaped in canoes were scattered in every direction on the face of the waters, and where they found themselves after the flood had subsided there they staked out pre-emption claims and formed new tribal associations. Thus it was that persons related by blood were widely separated from each other. Nevertheless they clung to the symbols which had distinguished them.

REGRETS.

Try to so direct your thoughts, your words, your actions, your whole life, in short, that regrets can find no room for intrusion. Regrets never follow virtuous actions. No one is sorrowful because, in looking back on his past life, he sees that it has been self denying and full of labor for others. If he does grieve at the retrospect it is because his efforts have been so imperfect and because he has done far less than it was his duty to do.

No Chance of That.

The beggar accepted gratefully a nickel from the professional humorist. "Thank you, sir," he said, his voice vibrant with deep feeling. "Oh, thank you, sir, and may you live to be as old as your jokes."—Washington Post.

OIL IS SPRAYED, AND NOT POURED

Experience of City of Dubuque, Iowa, in Sprinkling Streets With Oil

FIRST USED OWN CONTRIVANCE
Oil is Now Generally Used on Residence Streets in the Iowa City

Dubuque, Iowa, in its experience with oil sprinkling of streets, has had much the same experience which Brainerd is undergoing. In the early history of its oil sprinkling, home contrivances were used to spread the oil.

The writer visited the Dubuque city hall while on a trip through Iowa and the city clerk related the experiences of Dubuque. Last year the city had equipped its street force with sprinkling cans and they poured the oil on the streets. A gang of men with wire brooms followed and endeavored to spread the oil more equally and to obliterate the puddles which sometimes formed. This year the city purchased a regulation oil sprinkler and followed shortly with another, both costing about $500 each and freight. Oil had been used in Dubuque the last five or six years.

With the new sprinklers compressed air forces the oil out in a fine spray and deposits it equally and with satisfaction to all concerned. On some residence streets a coating of oil lasts a month or more and the streets has the appearance of just having been wet down by a water sprinkler which left no puddles. The oil, when so laid, does not stick to shoes or automobile tires and causes no tracking over pavements or floors. A tenth of a gallon is used to a square yard. In all cases care is taken that the oil is not put on too heavy, it being advisable to sprinkle oftener than to load up the surface with more oil than it can conveniently absorb. In treating new streets first class results are attained at the end of six weeks.

Dubuque uses brick paving on its business streets and the streets leading to the hill districts. It gives general satisfaction. On Main street is brick paving which was laid 23 years ago and has held up well under the heavy traffic.

The city owns its own water works. Water rates are there regulated according to the number of taps in a house, generally speaking it is 50 cents a tap, 75 cents for two taps a month, or $9 a year for two taps. A big improvement to be added is a high pressure system.

A large storm sewer is being built to the Mississippi river leading along Eighth street to the Peru road. It is 14 feet wide at the start and gradually grows smaller. It will cost $150,000. The length is two and a half miles.

Dubuque contemplates the purchase of additional auto equipment in its fire service and a committee of aldermen visited Minneapolis recently and inspected that city's equipment.

Dubuque is known far and wide in the baseball world. It has a municipal ball park used by the Dubuque city team. Amateur teams use the grounds on many of the other open dates.

The Elks have commenced the erection of a $150,000 building near Washington park. It is said this is preparatory to getting the next national convention.

Active in getting new industries to locate in Dubuque is their industrial association which often assists to finance new enterprises by taking stock in the same. When a new company wishes to locate in the Iowa city, an expert goes over the plant and makes a physical valuation. All the advantages which Dubuque has to offer are set out in attractive figures. The corporation does things on a business basis. Where the new company needs help, it is given in stock subscriptions. One of the big concerns which put up a plant in Dubuque is the Brunswick-Balke-Coller Co.

In the early days much galena was mined near Dubuque. Later the blackjack which had been discarded was found to be of value and old mines were worked over again and new riches coined.

Added to four trunk railways Dubuque has good service, passenger and freight, on the Mississippi river.

The Greater Dubuque Traveling-men's association has erected an electric sign, such as Brainerd contemplates, in the south end of their business district near the C. B. & Q. depot. At the other depots, for instance, the Chicago & Great Western depot, are painted signs giving statistics regarding Dubuque. One finds this boosting spirit prevalent everywhere.

Saloons close promptly at 9 o'clock in the evening. Marshalltown, Iowa, has no saloons, but Dubuque ships a lot of case beer to that town. In contradistinction with Marshalltown, Dubuque is colloquially known in Marshalltown as being a seaport.

WAR

The thrill of war's a base deceit;
The rattle of the drum's a lie.
It lures brave men with scurrying feet
To go where many dangers lie.
It sings a soldier's death is sweet.
It tells how great it is to die.

And yet no death can splendid be
That's caused by selfishness and pride;
The weeping widow—does not she
Long for the husband at her side?
Can any selfish victory
Restore the loved one that has died?

To die for others may be fine.
But not to die for others' gain.
The thin and faltering battle line,
The dead men on the bloody plain
Are seldom there by God's design.
Some human soul must wear the stain.

Murder in uniform is war,
Exalted only by a thrill.
And how long must it be before
Men will not blindly rush to kill?
How many generations more
Before the cannon's voice is still?
—Detroit Free Press.

HISTORY OF THE MEXICAN REVOLT LED BY CARRANZA.

Events Leading Up to Huerta's Flight
and Surrender of Carranza.

With the taking over of the government of Mexico by General Venustiano Carranza as provisional president, succeeding Francisco Carbajal, a brief review of the revolt which Carranza began when Madero was killed is of timely interest.

The struggle of the Constitutionalists to regain their power in Mexico began almost immediately after the revolt of Felix Diaz against the reign of the Maderos proved successful. The revolt began in Mexico City on Feb. 8, 1913.

Vicente Huerta became commander of the army, and after ten days of fighting Huerta caused the arrest of President Madero. On Feb. 18, 1913, Huerta became provisional president of Mexico, and five days afterward Madero and Suarez were slain.

The state of Sonora rose against Huerta and became the first stronghold of the Constitutionalists. General Carranza fought to establish a stable government for the state.

Monsieur Huerta sought the recognition of this government. On April 12, 1913, it was announced unofficially at Washington that the United States would not recognize Huerta or his government.

In the few months that followed the federalists were forced to evacuate Empalme and then were besieged at Guaymas. On April 20 Carranza was named supreme chief of the Constitutionalists. The next victory of the rebels was the capture of Durango on Aug. 3. That city was made Carranza's capital.

Last November General Villa began to display remarkable strength as a military leader, giving new vim to the rebel cause.

The rebels hesitated in their onward march when President Wilson sent the fleet to Vera Cruz, occupying that city. Within a short time, however, they were moving on Tampico and took that place on May 14. The next important victory by the rebels was the capture of Zacatecas, still nearer Mexico City. On July 5 they drove the federalists out of San Luis Potosi. Next Guadalajara fell into their hands.

The end of Huerta was near. On July 11 he appointed Carbajal as minister of foreign affairs, and on July 15 he resigned. Carbajal succeeded him. Carbajal sought to make peace with Carranza, asking that his soldiers receive the honors of war in yielding Mexico City, but Carranza refused to give any promises. He moved his men steadily on the capital. Carbajal resigned and left for Vera Cruz.

This is the Last Week of the Great Piano Sale

Out-of-Town Piano Buyers

MAKE US AN OFFER

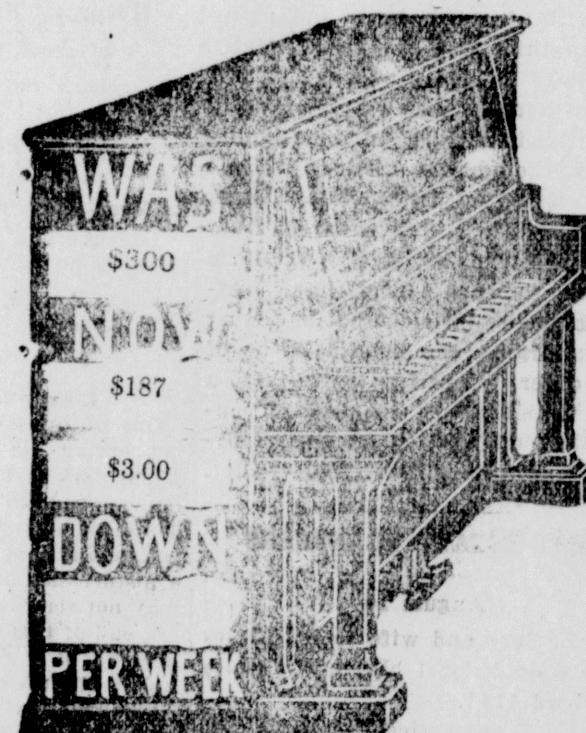

Both Cash and Time Buyers

This remarkable Piano sale will come to an end Saturday night. We are bound and determined that every Piano must be sold within that time. SELECT ANY PIANO IN OUR ENTIRE STOCK. MAKE US AN OFFER AND IF IT IS WITHIN REASON WE WILL ACCEPT IT.

We will pay your railroad fare both ways. We will prepay the freight on your piano. We will give you a beautiful stool and scarf and a full course of music lessons absolutely free.

We will Close Out This Stock if We Have to Accept Prices Less Than Wholesale

No reasonable offer refused. From this day forth that's the letter and spirit of this sale. Name your own price. Name your own terms and if they are such that we can get anything even near the wholesale cost out of the goods we will accept your offer. YOU CAN BUY A PIANO AT THIS SALE AT YOUR OWN PRICE. Just think of what that means to you. Is there any excuse for you not getting a piano? Do not let the terms stand in the way. Name them yourself. Do not let the price interfere with your intentions. We are placing on sale NEW Pianos as low as $135. THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL TOMORROW. COME DOWN NOW—THIS VERY MOMENT WHILE THE THOUGHT IS IN YOUR MIND.

A Personal Letter from Mr. Graham

TO THE PUBLIC:

I wish to state most emphatically that I am back of every move during this great sale. I bought three carloads of pianos for spot cash. We are offering brand new pianos for less money than most dealers could purchase them for wholesale. All the pianos we are offering for sale are standard makes of pianos that have been on the market for years. You cannot compare these pianos with the ordinary run of pianos carried by small dealers.

If you want a plain upright we have that. If you want a player, we have that; we have a good selection of all styles.

A lady said yesterday she didn't see how we could sell such fine pianos and make a profit. We informed her this sale was not being conducted for that purpose. We are advertising therefore we must sell, regardless of price or terms. I have been doing business here sixteen years and I will give you my word of honor I have never seen these pianos offered for such low prices before.

WAR

The drum of war's a base deceit;
The rattle of the drum's a lie.
It lures brave men with scurrying feet
To go where many dangers lie;
It sings a soldier's death is sweet,
It tells how great it is to die.

And yet no death can splendid be
That's caused by selfishness and pride;
The weeping widow—does not she
Lament for the husband at her side?
Can any selfish victory
Restore the loved one that has died?

To die for others may be fine,
But not to die for others' gain.
The din and faltering battle line,
The dead men on the bloody plain
Are solemn there by God's design;
Some human soul must wear the stain.

Murder in uniform is war,
Excited only by a thrill,
And how long must it be before
Men will not blindly rush to kill?
How many generations more
Before the cannon's voice is still?

HISTORY OF THE MEXICAN REVOLT LED BY CARRANZA.

Events Leading Up to Huerta's Flight and Surrender of Carranza.

With the taking over of the government of Mexico by General Venustiano Carranza as provisional president, succeeding Francisco Carbajal, a brief review of the revolt which Carranza began when Madero was killed is of timely interest.

The struggle of the Constitutionalists to regain their power in Mexico began almost immediately after the revolt of Felix Diaz against the reign of the Maderos proved successful. The revolt began in Mexico City on Feb. 8, 1913.

Vicente Huerta became commander of the army, and after ten days of fighting Huerta caused the arrest of President Madero. On Feb. 18, 1913, Huerta became provisional president of Mexico, and five days afterward Madero and Suarez were slain.

The state of Sonora rose against Huerta and became the first stronghold of the Constitutionalists. General Carranza fought to establish a stable government for the state.

Mexican Huerta sought the recognition of this government. On April 12, 1913, it was announced unofficially at Washington that the United States would not recognize Huerta or his government.

In the few months that followed the federals were forced to evacuate Empalme and then were besieged at Guaymas. On April 20 Carranza was named supreme chief of the Constitutionalists. The next victory of the rebels was the capture of Durango on Aug. 3. That city was made Carranza's capital.

Last November General Villa began to display remarkable strength as a military leader, giving new vim to the rebel cause.

The rebels hesitated in their onward march when President Wilson sent the fleet to Vera Cruz, occupying that city. Within a short time, however, they were moving on Tampico and took that place on May 14. The next important victory by the rebels was the capture of Zacatecas, still nearer Mexico City. On July 5 they drove the federals out of San Luis Potosi. Next Guadalajara fell into their hands.

The end of Huerta was near. On July 11 he appointed Carbajal as minister of foreign affairs, and on July 15 he resigned. Carbajal succeeded him. Carbajal sought to make peace with Carranza, asking that his soldiers receive the honors of war in yielding Mexico City, but Carranza refused to give any promises. He moved his men steadily on the capital. Carbajal resigned and left for Vera Cruz.

PIANO SALE

Last Week

Everything Goes
Regardless of Cost

This is the Last Week of the Great Piano Sale

Out-of-Town Piano Buyers

MAKE US AN OFFER

Both Cash and Time Buyers

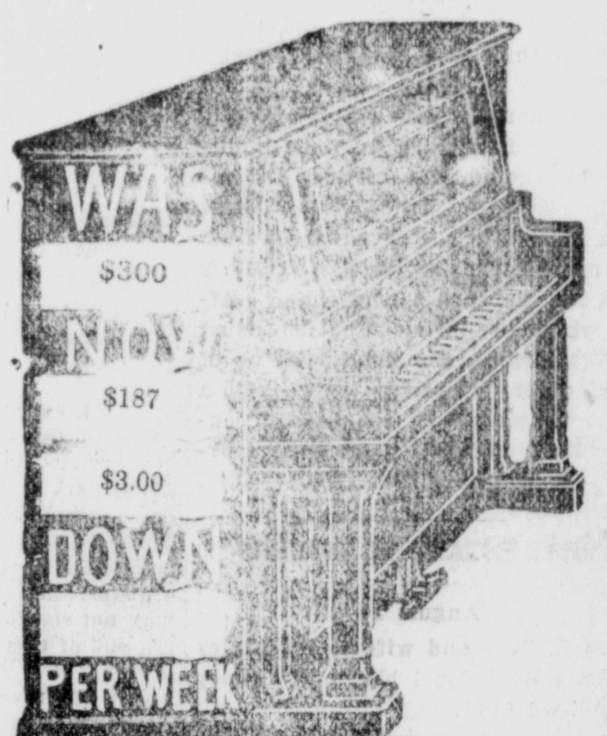

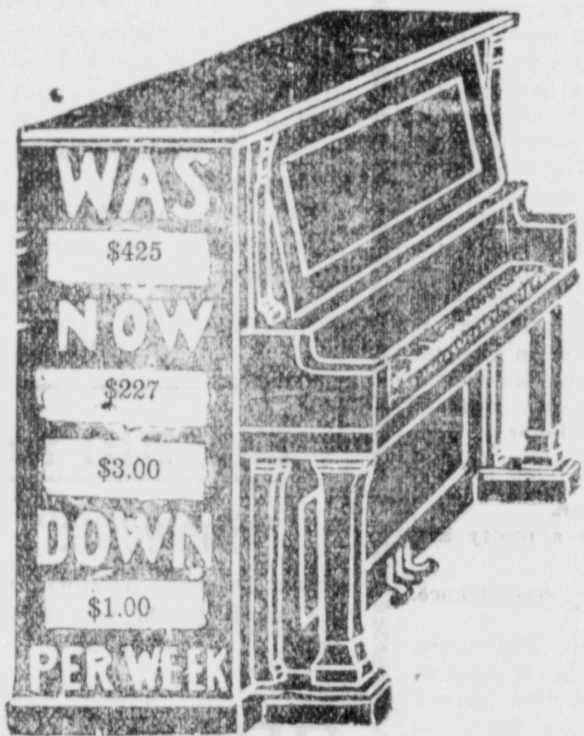

This remarkable Piano sale will come to an end Saturday night. We are bound and determined that every Piano must be sold within that time. SELECT ANY PIANO IN OUR ENTIRE STOCK. MAKE US AN OFFER AND IF IT IS WITHIN REASON WE WILL ACCEPT IT.

We will pay your railroad fare both ways. We will prepay the freight on your piano. We will give you a beautiful stool and scarf and a full course of music lessons absolutely free.

Do not miss this great opportunity. Get your piano this week. We have some of the world's best known makes at practically your own price. WE WILL ACCEPT ANY REASONABLE OFFER FOR CASH. This is going some, but we must do it. We are simply determined to dispose of every piano and we will not accept "NO" for an answer. We will sell brand new Pianos on terms as low as $3.00 down and $1.00 per week at prices ranging from $135 up. This sale will never be duplicated in the history of piano selling.

We will Close Out This Stock if We Have to Accept Prices Less Than Wholesale

No reasonable offer refused. From this day forth that's the letter and spirit of this sale. Name your own price. Name your own terms and if they are such that we can get anything even near the wholesale cost out of the goods we will accept your offer. YOU CAN BUY A PIANO AT THIS SALE AT YOUR OWN PRICE. Just think of what that means to you. Is there any excuse for you not getting a piano? Do not let the terms stand in the way. Name them yourself. Do not let the price interfere with your intentions. We are placing on sale NEW Pianos as low as $135. THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL TOMORROW. COME DOWN NOW—THIS VERY MOMENT WHILE THE THOUGHT IS IN YOUR MIND.

A Personal Letter from Mr. Graham
